

BEYOND — THE — SCREENS

LESS SCREEN TIME.
MORE CHILDHOOD.

PRERNA SULTANIA

A LETTER TO PARENTS

This is for you, not just your child. ♥

Dear Parent,

If you're reading this, you already care deeply about your child. You want what's best for them. You want balance. You want a childhood filled with real laughter, not just screen light.

But let's be honest—raising kids in a digital world is hard. Screens are everywhere. Demands are constant. And some days, doing "enough" feels impossible.

Please know this: You are not alone, and you are not failing. You are learning. You are showing up. And that matters more than you know.

This book is not about removing screens completely. It's about reconnecting what screens slowly disconnect—attention, imagination, patience, curiosity, and connection.

You will find simple ideas, real-life solutions, and meaningful activities that help your child feel seen, safe, and satisfied—so screens are no longer their only comfort.

Small swaps. Real moments.
They create big changes—one day at a time.

You've got this. And I'm here with you. ♥

Prerna Sultania

Parent. Writer. Childhood Cheerleader.

Remember ♥

Childhood isn't about perfect parents.
It's about present parents.

Let's build a childhood they'll never want to escape from.

This book will help you:

- ✦ Understand what's really behind screen requests
- ✦ Discover simple, real-life screen swap solutions
- ✦ Build stronger connection and better habits
- ✦ Create more calm, confidence, and joy at home

Because at the end of the day, our children won't remember the shows they watched.
They will remember the moments we shared.

Thank you for choosing real moments over screen moments.
Your child doesn't need a perfect parent—just you.

ABOUT THE Author

Prerna Sultania

Mom. Nutrition Enthusiast. Guide. Creator.

My parenting journey started with one simple goal – to do what's best for my child. But the path was far from easy.

Between meals, meltdowns, mood swings, and digital distractions, I often felt lost and unsure. I searched for answers, tried everything I could, and kept asking myself – Am I doing this right?

That's when I decided to turn my learnings, failures, experiments and small wins into practical guides to help other parents raise healthy, happy kids.

MY JOURNEY AS A PARENT

PICKY EATING & MEAL TIME STRUGGLES

Nothing seemed to work. I just wanted my child to eat healthy.

JUNK FOOD TEMPTATIONS

Sugary snacks, hidden ingredients and constant cravings worried me.

TOO MUCH SCREEN TIME

Endless screen time impacted mood, sleep, focus and real-life connections.

EMOTIONAL UPS & DOWNS

Tantrums, mood swings and stress became a part of our everyday life.

I WANTED BETTER

I dreamed of a child who is healthy, confident, kind and truly happy.

I TOOK ACTION. I LEARNED. I CREATED.

To share what works and help other parents like me.

TURNING MY LEARNINGS INTO GUIDES FOR PARENTS – MY BOOKS

1

EAT YOUR GREEN GUIDE

My first step to help parents build healthy eating habits and make real food simple, fun and doable every day.

2

RAISING KIDS IN A JUNK FOOD WORLD

To open eyes to the hidden dangers of junk food, sugar marketing and the impact on our children's health.

3

RAISING KIDS IN A DIGITAL WORLD

To help parents navigate screens, build digital balance and raise focused, confident and emotionally strong kids.

4

BEYOND THE SCREENS

My latest guide to help families create real connections, joyful experiences and a childhood that goes beyond screens.

MY MISSION: RAISING WHOLE, HAPPY, HEALTHY KIDS

I believe health is more than food. It's about nurturing our children in every possible way.

PHYSICALLY HEALTHY

Good nutrition, active play, quality sleep and strong habits.

MENTALLY STRONG

Confident mind, positive self-talk and a growth mindset.

SOCIALLY CONFIDENT

Kindness, empathy, respect and meaningful relationships.

EMOTIONALLY SECURE

Aware of feelings, able to express, handle and grow.

Because a healthy childhood today builds a healthier, happier world tomorrow.

*My heart. My journey. My purpose.
Your family's better tomorrow.*

WHY THIS

Works

Connection over restriction. Needs over rules.

This book is not just another list of activities.

It's a different approach—backed by child development and real-life experience.

THE SCIENCE BEHIND THIS BOOK

SCREENS MEET NEEDS

Children don't ask for screens without a reason. Screens often meet needs like:

- Entertainment
- Comfort
- Connection
- Escape
- Stimulation

When needs are missed, screens fill the gap.

CONNECTION MEETS NEEDS

When we understand and meet those needs in real life, children feel seen, safe and satisfied.

They get:

- Belonging
- Attention
- Fun
- Achievement
- Calm

Real connection replaces the need for screens.

CHILDHOOD BUILDS LIFE

The early years shape the brain, the heart and the habits. Real-life experiences build:

- Confidence
- Creativity
- Resilience
- Focus
- Stronger relationships

These are skills that screens can't teach.

WHAT MAKES THIS APPROACH DIFFERENT?

JUDGMENT-FREE

No guilt. No shame. Just understanding, support and solutions that work in real life.

NEED-FOCUSED

We look beyond behaviour and focus on the need behind every screen request.

SIMPLE & PRACTICAL

Easy activities. Small swaps. Real-life ideas for busy families.

CONNECTION-CENTERED

Stronger bonds, better communication and more peaceful days at home.

SUSTAINABLE

Small, consistent choices create long-lasting change—one day at a time.

This book gives you understanding, tools and confidence. Because when we meet needs with love, screens lose their power.

Real moments. Real connections. Real childhood.

HOW TO USE This Book

This book is designed as your real-life companion to build a balanced, connected and joyful childhood.

Simple steps. Real change. ♥

You don't have to do everything at once.
Just follow these steps, one small moment at a time.

1

UNDERSTAND: START WITH HALT & THE SCREEN CYCLE

Begin with the HALT Framework to understand your child's real needs behind every screen request. Then, learn how the Screen Cycle works so you can gently break the loop.

2

EXPLORE: DISCOVER THE REAL FRAMEWORK

Dive into the REAL Framework (Relate, Explore, Adventure, Little Creators). These pillars help build the childhood your child truly needs.

3

PRACTICE: PICK DAILY ACTIVITIES

Choose simple, real-life activities from each pillar based on your child's mood, energy and interest. Even 10–20 minutes can create big impact.

4

SWAP IN REAL LIFE: USE EVERYDAY SCREEN SWAPS

Use the Everyday Screen Swap ideas for moments like waiting time, travel, weekends and busy days. Small swaps. Real connection.

5

REFLECT & ADJUST

Use the reflection pages to track what works, what doesn't and what your child loves. Adjust, try again and celebrate small wins.

REMEMBER

Connection comes before correction.

You don't need perfect days, just present ones.

Small moments today create strong memories tomorrow.

You are raising a child, not just managing screen time.

You have the power to shape your child's childhood.
You've got this, and we're here with you.

THE HALT FRAMEWORK

A screen is not always the problem. Sometimes it's a signal of unmet needs.

A SIMPLE PAUSE TO UNDERSTAND THE REAL NEED BEHIND THE SCREEN REQUEST

Before saying YES or NO to screen time, pause and check what your child might really need.

H

H = HUNGRY

When children are hungry, they may become:

- irritable
- restless
- emotional
- difficult to redirect

ASK YOURSELF

Has my child eaten recently?

A

A = ANGRY

Big emotions can make screens feel comforting.

Children may use screens to:

- avoid difficult feelings
- escape frustration
- distract themselves

ASK YOURSELF

What happened just before this request?

Children often seek screens when they need connection.

Especially after:

- school
- social conflicts
- busy family days

ASK YOURSELF

Does my child need connection more than content right now?

T

T = TIRED

When children are tired:

- self-control decreases
- patience decreases
- screens become harder to stop

ASK YOURSELF

Could fatigue be driving this behaviour?

Can I have screen time?

SCREEN REQUEST

Before saying yes or no...

PAUSE

Check what my child might really need:

Hungry?

Angry?

Lonely?

Tired?

A BETTER RESPONSE

Instead of:
"You don't need more screen time."

Try:
"Let's check what your body and mind need first."

HALT EXAMPLES (REFERENCE)

These examples help you identify the real need behind the screen request.

1. ENTERTAINMENT (H)

Screens are fun. Bright colours, exciting stories and instant stimulation lift mood.

Example:

After finishing homework, child says "I'm bored."

2. COMFORT (T / L)

Screens help children relax, unwind and feel safe — especially when they are tired or overwhelmed.

Example:

After school or before bed, child looks for screens to relax.

3. CONNECTION (L)

Children often use screens to stay connected, play with friends, share experiences or feel included.

Example:

After a fight with a friend, child wants to go online.

4. ESCAPE FROM BOREDOM (A / L)

When children feel stuck, understimulated or frustrated, screens offer an easy escape from uncomfortable feelings or situations.

Example:

During chores or a boring moment, child asks for phone.

5. HABIT (T / A)

When screens become the default response, they turn into a habit.

Example:

Repeated requests at the same time every day.

REMEMBER:

A screen request is not always a screen problem. Sometimes it is a need looking for our attention.

THE SCREEN CYCLE

Understand the loop. Break the cycle.

It's not about bad kids. It's about unmet needs.
When needs are missed, screens fill the gap.

MOVE FROM THE SCREEN CYCLE TO THE REAL CYCLE

Real moments. Real connections. Real change.

REMEMBER

- Screens don't cause the problem.
- Unmet needs do.
- You can break the cycle.
- You can build a REAL childhood.

Real Connection.
Real Growth.

Mirror Game

MISSION:

Mirror each other's moves and share some giggles together!

Play, move, and connect—just like a mirror! ❤️

When your child says...

"Play with me!"

WHY THIS WORKS

Children don't always need entertainment—they need connection. The Mirror Game fills their "connection cup" through eye contact, laughter, and shared attention. Taking turns leading and following helps children feel seen, valued, and emotionally connected, making it easier to move away from screens. ❤️

PARENT COACHING CUE

Secret Story Box

MISSION:

Create a story together that no one knows the ending to.

Every imagination begins with one sentence.

When your child says...

“I’m bored.”

Why This Works

Children naturally love stories. Creating one together builds imagination, language, listening, and connection while replacing passive screen time with active creativity. Every family creates a different adventure, making the experience memorable and uniquely theirs.

Parent Coaching Cue

Instead of saying:

“Go find something to do.”

Try saying:

Two-Player Blanket Fort

MISSION:

Turn a few blankets and cushions into a magical hideaway for two.

Build a cozy little world together.

When your child says...

“There’s nothing to do!”

Why This Works

Children love creating spaces they can call their own. Building a blanket fort encourages teamwork, creativity, and problem-solving while giving them a safe, cozy place to read, chat, imagine, or simply enjoy being together. It’s not about building the perfect fort—it’s about building connection.

Parent Coaching Cue

Instead of saying:

“Go play in your room.”

Highs & Lows

Big feelings become meaningful conversations.

MISSION

Share the happiest and hardest part of your day—one story at a time.

When your child says...

“Nothing happened today.”

Why This Works

Many children struggle to answer, “How was your day?” because the question feels too big. Sharing one high and one low gives them a simple way to reflect, express emotions, and feel heard. This daily ritual builds trust, emotional intelligence, and stronger family connections—without pressure or judgment.

Parent Coaching Cue

Instead of saying:

“Tell me what happened at school.”

Try saying:

Why This Works

Children spend much of their day indoors or focused on screens. A slow evening walk helps reset their senses, calm busy minds, and encourages natural conversation. Watching the changing colors of the sky, spotting silhouettes, and listening to nature creates peaceful moments that become lasting childhood memories.

Chef of the Day Prep

Little helping hands. Big family memories.

When your child says... /

or

“Can I watch something while you cook?” ”

Why This Works

Children often ask for screens while parents are busy cooking because they’re looking for attention and something engaging to do.

By giving them a real kitchen job, you replace passive screen time with meaningful participation. They stay connected, feel important, and become part of the family team instead of watching from the sidelines.

Chef of the Day Prep

Little helping hands. Big family memories.

SIMPLE STEPS

Follow these simple steps and turn kitchen time into connection time!

Choose a Job

Let your child pick a real kitchen job that's safe and age-appropriate. Choice builds excitement and ownership.

Do It Together

Work side by side. Show them how, then let them try. Offer help only when they ask for it.

Let Them Shine

Give them time and space to do it their way. Praise their effort, not just the outcome.

Enjoy & Celebrate

Sit together and enjoy the meal they helped make. Celebrate their hard work and teamwork!

LEVEL UP!

Adapt the activity as your child grows in skills and confidence.

★ EASY

For Beginners (Ages 3–5)

- ✓ Simple tasks like washing veggies or tearing lettuce.
- ✓ Use safe tools and give clear instructions.
- ✓ Let them feel successful with small wins.

★ CHALLENGE

For Growing Kids (Ages 6–8)

- ✓ Try chopping soft foods, measuring ingredients, or stirring on the stove.
- ✓ Introduce new recipes and step-by-step tasks.
- ✓ Encourage them to take more responsibility.

★ EXPERT

For Confident Kids (Ages 9–10)

- ✓ Plan the menu together and make a full dish.
- ✓ Let them lead a step while you step back.
- ✓ Invite them to teach or help a sibling.

THIS ACTIVITY BUILDS

- ✓ Life Skills – Responsibility and independence
- ✓ Confidence – “I can do it!” moments
- ✓ Healthy Habits – Interest in real food
- ✓ Family Connection – Teamwork & bonding
- ✓ Focus & Patience – One step at a time

BEST FOR

- 🕒 After school downtime
- ☀️ Weekends & holidays
- 🕒 Before dinner time
- 📱 When kids ask for screens

CELEBRATE TOGETHER!

Take a photo of their creation, make a “Chef of the Day” certificate, or let them choose the next meal.

Small celebrations build big memories and motivation!

Remember: It's not about perfect meals, it's about present moments.

Mintu's Daily Drink

Helping something grow, one drop at a time.

When your child says...

“

the tablet?”

“I’m bored.”

Why This Works

Screens give children an instant sense of interaction, but that feeling disappears as soon as the screen turns off. Caring for a real plant gives them something living to nurture every day.

Measuring water, noticing new leaves, and celebrating tiny changes replaces passive screen time with responsibility, curiosity, and a genuine sense of achievement.

Parent Coaching Cue

Instead of saying:

“Not now.
Go play.”

SIMPLE STEPS

Follow these simple steps and make plant care a daily joy!

Check Mintu

Look at the soil and leaves together. Does the plant need water today?

Give the Right Amount

Help your child carefully pour a small amount of water into the pot.

Become a Plant Detective

Look for new leaves, flowers, or changes in color. Talk about what you notice.

Record the Growth

Draw today's plant, measure its height, or place a sticker on your tracker.

LEVEL UP! Try these ideas as your child grows.

LEVEL 1 – EASY (Ages 4–6)

- Water one plant.
- Count the leaves.
- Wipe dusty leaves with a soft cloth.

Focus: Building routine and connection.

LEVEL 2 – CHALLENGE (Ages 7–10)

- Keep a weekly growth journal.
- Learn the plant's name.
- Compare two different plants.

Focus: Observation, learning and responsibility.

LEVEL 3 – EXPERT (Ages 10+)

- Create a watering schedule.
- Propagate a simple plant (where appropriate).
- Care for a mini indoor plant collection.

Focus: Independence, planning and leadership.

- Take a monthly growth photo.
- Award the "Plant Hero" of the Week badge.
- Ask: "What's the biggest change Mintu made this week?"

Remember: Small care today grows big memories tomorrow.

Toy Rescue Sorting

Turn cleanup into a mission, not a battle.

When your child says...

"I'll clean later."

or

"Can I watch something first?"

Why This Works

When children resist cleaning up, screens often become an easy escape from a task that feels overwhelming or boring.

By turning cleanup into a fast-paced rescue mission with clear goals, children experience movement, teamwork, and small wins instead of avoidance. They build responsibility while feeling capable—not pressured.

Parent Coaching Cue

Secret Agent Kindness Notes

Tiny notes. Big smiles. Stronger family bonds. ♥

When your child says...

"I'm bored."

or

"Can I use

Why This Works

Children often reach for screens when they're looking for something new, exciting, or rewarding.

This activity replaces the quick dopamine hit of digital entertainment with the joy of giving. Creating and secretly hiding kind notes builds empathy, creativity, and meaningful family connection. The excitement of waiting for someone to discover the note is just as rewarding as receiving one.

Neighborhood Green Hunt

Every walk becomes an adventure when you know what to look for. ❤️

WHY THIS WORKS

Many children reach for screens because they crave quick challenges and instant rewards. Target games satisfy that same need through movement, focus, and repeated success in the real world.

Throwing, aiming, and improving with every round builds coordination, patience, and confidence while keeping children physically active instead of passively entertained.

SIMPLE STEPS

A few simple steps. Unlimited fun! ❤️

1 Set Up the Targets

Place baskets, buckets, or boxes at different distances.

2 Ready, Aim, Throw!

Use rolled-up socks, beanbags, or soft balls and take turns aiming at the targets.

3 Increase the Challenge

Move farther away, use one hand, stand on one foot, or assign different point values!

4 Celebrate the Champion

Count the points, cheer for everyone's effort, and crown today's Target Champion!

LEVEL UP!

LEVEL 1 – EASY (Ages 4–6)

- ★ Stand close to the basket.
- ★ Throw five soft socks.
- ★ Celebrate every successful throw.

Focus: Hand-eye coordination and confidence. ❤️

LEVEL 2 – CHALLENGE (Ages 7–10)

- ★ Increase the distance.
- ★ Add different point values.
- ★ Throw with the non-dominant hand.

Focus: Accuracy and problem-solving. ❤️

LEVEL 3 – EXPERT (Ages 10+)

- ★ Build a family tournament.

VEGGIE STAMP MASTERPIECE

Turn leftover veggies into beautiful works of art. ❤️

SCREEN TRIGGER

When your child says...

"There's nothing fun to do while you cook."

"Can I watch YouTube until the food is ready?"

WHY THIS WORKS

Children often reach for screens while waiting for meals or when they don't know how to entertain themselves. This activity transforms ordinary kitchen time into a creative art session using everyday vegetables.

Stamping, experimenting with colors, and creating unique patterns stimulates imagination, fine motor skills, and sensory exploration—making creativity more rewarding than passive screen time. ❤️

PARENT COACHING CUE

Pour a few paint colors onto plates.

2 DIP & STAMP

Dip the vegetables into paint and press them onto paper.
Explore different shapes and patterns!

3 CREATE YOUR MASTERPIECE

Turn the prints into flowers, trees, butterflies, animals, or anything your imagination loves!
Use markers or crayons to add details.

4 CELEBRATE THE ARTIST

Display the artwork on a wall, fridge, or family gallery.
Let your child explain their creation!

LEVEL UP!

LEVEL 1 – EASY (Ages 4–6)

- ★ Use two paint colors.
- ★ Name each shape you discover.

Focus: Creativity and sensory exploration.

★ LEVEL 2 – CHALLENGE (Ages 7–10)

- ★ Mix colors to create new shades.
- ★ Design a greeting card or wrapping paper.
- ★ Create repeating patterns.

Focus: Creative thinking and design.

🏆 LEVEL 3 – EXPERT (Ages 10+)

- ★ Create a complete landscape or story scene.
- ★ Combine multiple vegetable textures.
- ★ Teach another family member how to make veggie art.

Focus: Artistic expression and leadership.

THE SHADOW PUPPET THEATER

SCREEN TRIGGER

When your child says...

"Can I watch cartoons before bedtime?"

"I'm bored. Can I have the tablet?"

Turn a flashlight into a stage where imagination comes alive. ♥

WHY THIS WORKS

Children often want screens in the evening because they crave stories and entertainment. Shadow puppets provide the same excitement while encouraging imagination, conversation, and family connection.

Creating characters, voices, and stories helps children develop creativity, language, confidence, and emotional expression—without passive screen time.

One box. Endless adventures. ♥

SCREEN TRIGGER

When your child says...

"The delivery is here!

WHY THIS WORKS

Children often overlook simple household objects because screens provide instant entertainment. A cardboard box encourages open-ended play, where imagination—not technology—creates the adventure.

Building and pretending strengthen creativity, problem-solving, communication, and independent play while giving children ownership of something they created themselves. ♥

SCREEN SWAP 22

Blindfolded SCENT TESTING ?

Close your eyes.
Open your senses. ♡

SCREEN TRIGGER

When your child says...

"Everything is boring."

"Can I watch YouTube while we wait?"

WHY THIS WORKS

When children feel bored, screens become the easiest source of stimulation. This sensory guessing game replaces passive entertainment with curiosity, laughter, and real-world exploration.

Guessing everyday smells strengthens memory, attention, observation, vocabulary, and confidence while helping children become more aware of the amazing world around them. ♡

THE TRANSITION TOOLKIT

FROM SCREEN TO REAL IN 5 SIMPLE STEPS

Smooth transitions. Happy kids. Peaceful homes.

Transitions work best when they are predictable, positive and consistent.

WHY TRANSITIONS MATTER

- They prepare your child for change.
- They reduce meltdowns and power struggles.
- They build trust, confidence and cooperation.
- They help children shift from fast pace to real life.

GOLDEN RULE

Prepare → Guide → Redirect → Connect

Not: Suddenly stop → Argue → Force → Frustrate

1

5 MINUTE WARNING

Give a gentle heads-up. It helps their brain get ready for change.

"In 5 minutes, we will switch off the screen and do something fun together."

TIPS

Keep your tone calm and kind.

Use a timer they can see.

2

COUNTDOWN

Use a timer or countdown. Make it visible and engaging.

"3... 2... 1... Time to switch! Let's go!"

Make countdown fun:

Clap

Sing

Take 3 deep breaths

3

OFFER A CHOICE

Give 2 REAL choices so they feel in control and cooperate better.

"Would you like to build with blocks or go for a nature scavenger hunt?"

Choices should be:

REAL (screen-free)

Simple (2 only)

Doable

4

MOVE TO A REAL ACTIVITY

Start the chosen activity immediately. Don't leave a gap for "just 2 more minutes".

"Great choice! Let's start our adventure!"

Be present.

Get involved.

Make the first few minutes exciting!

5

CELEBRATE THE SWITCH

Praise the effort. Celebrate small wins. Make it feel good!

"Yay! You switched so well! High five!"

Use smiles, high-fives, thumbs up, hugs or a simple "I'm proud of you." Celebration builds habit!

SMALL TRANSITIONS TODAY. BIG HABITS TOMORROW.

Consistent practice

Predictable routine

Safe & secure child

Less screen fights

More connection & happiness

REMEMBER

You don't need to be perfect. You just need to be consistent and connect with love.

When children feel prepared and involved, transitions are no longer a struggle – they become a bridge to connection.

Real-life moments. Real-world alternatives.

TRAVEL & CAR RIDES

Turn travel time into connection time.

1 LONG CAR JOURNEYS

When your child says...
"Can I watch something on your phone?"

Why they're asking
Boredom, looking for entertainment

Try these Screen Swaps

- Road trip bingo (find certain cars, signs, colors)
- Create a story together – one line each
- I Spy – choose a letter
- Guess that song – hum the tune
- Make up a travel bucket list

Parent Tip
Involve everyone in the car. Take turns leading games – even the youngest can join!

2 TRAFFIC JAMS

When your child says...
"It's taking so long! I'm bored."

Why they're asking
Frustration, restlessness

Try these Screen Swaps

- Count different colored cars
- Spot interesting number plates
- Play "Would You Rather?"
- Look for something that starts with each letter
- Deep breathing + stretch challenge

Parent Tip
A positive attitude from you makes the wait easier for them. Keep calm and they will too!

3 WAITING TO PICK SOMEONE UP

When your child says...
"How much longer? I'm bored."

Why they're asking
Impatience, nothing to do

Try these Screen Swaps

- People watch – make up stories about people
- Find 5 things of one color
- Draw in a travel sketchbook
- Play license plate alphabet game
- Talk about your favorite memories together

Parent Tip
Use waiting time to build connection. Ask open-ended questions and really listen to their answers.

4 TAXI / AUTO RIDES

When your child says...
"Can I play a game on your phone?"

Why they're asking
Looking for quick entertainment

Try these Screen Swaps

- Name game – animals, fruits, countries
- Sing a song together
- Count vehicles on the road
- Say one word story
- Play "Find something round"

Parent Tip
Keep it simple and portable. A smile, a question, and a game can turn any ride into fun time!

Small moments today create big memories tomorrow.

Less screen.
More connection.
More childhood.

Real conversations. Real giggles. Real childhood.

one minute, one idea, and one connected parent.

SCREEN-FREE MEALS

More Conversation.

Better Nutrition.

Stronger Family Bonds.

Meals are more than food on a plate.
They are tiny moments
that build big connections.

WHY DO PARENTS USE SCREENS DURING MEALS?

To make children eat faster.

To stop tantrums.

To keep children seated.

To distract picky eaters.

Because it has become a habit.

THE HIDDEN COST

Instead of learning to:

- ♥ recognize hunger
- ♥ notice fullness
- ♥ enjoy food
- ♥ talk with family
- ♥ taste new foods

Children learn:

BUT THEY LEARN

Food = Screen

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN SCREENS BECOME MEALTIME COMPANIONS?

Mindless eating

Poor appetite regulation

Less family conversation

Reduced exposure to new foods

Longer meal times

Greater dependence on screens

REPLACE SCREEN TIME WITH CONNECTION

Instead of:

"Watch one more"
cartoon."

Try:

- ♥ What's the crunchiest thing on your plate?
- ♥ Which colour is winning today?
- ♥ If this vegetable were a superhero, who would it be?
- ♥ Tell us one funny thing that happened today.
- ♥ Guess today's secret ingredient.

THE 10-MINUTE FAMILY MEAL CHALLENGE

- ✓ No screens.
- ✓ Everyone sits together.
- ✓ One conversation starter.
- ✓ One appreciation.
- ✓ One new bite.

That's all.

REMEMBER

You don't need longer meals.
You need better moments.
Be present. Be curious. Be connected.
That's the secret ingredient.

SCREEN-FREE MEALS

More Conversation.
Better Nutrition.
Stronger Family Bonds.

Meals are more than food on a plate.
They are tiny moments
that build big connections.

The goal is not perfect meals.
The goal is present meals.

WHEN TO USE THE CONNECTION TOOLKIT?

A simple guide to make every meal a connection opportunity.

SCREEN ENDS

Turn off screens and transition to the real world.

2-5 MINUTES BEFORE MEAL

Help your child shift from screens to the dining table.
Use simple connection ideas.

DURING MEAL

This is your main window!
Use one idea from the Connection Toolkit to engage, talk, play or notice together.

2-3 MINUTES AFTER MEAL

End with connection and appreciation.
Close the meal with warmth.

DURING MEAL: CONNECTION TOOLKIT

Pick ONE idea from any column. Keep it light, fun and natural.

1. TALK TOGETHER

Conversation Starters
Pick 1 or 2 and talk together.

- What made you smile today? 😊
- If you could cook one meal, what would it be? 👨‍🍳
- What was the best part of your day? ❤️
- If vegetables could talk, what would broccoli say? 🥦
- What is your favourite smell? 🌸
- If you could go anywhere this weekend, where would you go? 🌍
- What did you learn today? 📖
- If you could invent something, what would it be? 💡
- What is one kind thing you did today? 🤝
- What are you grateful for today? 🙏

2. PLAY TOGETHER

Table Games & Challenges
Turn meals into mini adventures.

- Find three green foods. 🌿
- Which food is the softest? ☁️
- Guess the spice! 🍷
- How many colours are on your plate? 🌈
- Count all the round foods. 🍎
- What shape is this food? ⭐
- Make a funny name for today's dish. 😄
- Rate today's meal from 1 to 5. ⭐⭐⭐⭐
- I spy something healthy... 🔍
- Let's build the tallest food tower! 🗼

3. NOTICE TOGETHER

Observation Challenges
Slow down. Look. Appreciate.

- What is the crunchiest thing on your plate? 🥕
- Which food has the brightest colour? 🍅
- What does this food remind you of? ☁️
- Where did this food come from? 🌱
- What texture do you like the most today? 🌊
- Which food is the most colourful? 🎨
- What is the yummiest smell here? 🌫️
- What food would you like to try next time? 🍜
- Which food gives you the most energy? ⚡
- What is your favourite part of this meal? ❤️

THE GOLDEN RULE

One meal.
One activity.
One connection.

You don't need to entertain your child throughout the meal.
One meaningful moment is enough.

BEFORE MEAL: SIMPLE CONNECTION IDEAS (Use any 1-2 ideas)

Help set the table.

Can you carry the spoons?

Guess what's for dinner today!

Smell today's food. What do you think it is?

Find something green on the table.

Share one favourite part of dinner.

Thank the cook together.

Help clear
one plate.

Give a family high-five!

Choose tomorrow's vegetable together.

Small moments today become big memories
tomorrow.

SCREEN SWAP Wheel

I'M BORED? LET'S DO SOMETHING REAL! ♥

Whenever your child asks for a screen, spin the wheel and try something real instead!

HOW TO USE

- ♥ Spin together
- ♥ Pick an idea
- ♥ Do it with joy!

The goal is not to avoid screens. The goal is to create a life so full that screens are no longer their first choice.

KEEP IT SIMPLE

You don't need perfect plans. You just need presence, patience and a willingness to try.

Small swaps. Real moments.
Big changes.

Acknowledgement

To every child and every parent, this book is for you.

Children don't need a perfect childhood—they need one filled with love, connection, curiosity, laughter, and memories that last far beyond a screen. I hope these pages inspire more conversations, more adventures, and more moments where families simply enjoy being together.

To every parent, thank you for choosing connection over convenience, even when life feels busy and overwhelming. Parenting today comes with challenges that no generation has faced before. If you've ever questioned yourself, felt guilty, or wondered whether you're doing enough, please know that you are not alone. Every small step you take toward being present makes a lasting difference in your child's life.

This book was inspired by my own parenting journey—the questions, the struggles, the little victories, and the belief that healthier, happier childhoods are built through simple, everyday moments. My hope is that these ideas help your family create a childhood filled with real experiences, meaningful relationships, and joyful memories.

Thank you for allowing me to be a small part of your family's journey.

With gratitude,
Prerna Sultania

A FINAL LETTER

from My Heart

Thank you for taking this journey with your child. ♥

Dear Parent, ♥

If you've made it this far, I want you to know something important—you are already doing an amazing job.

This book was never about perfection. It was about connection. About choosing presence over screens. About creating a childhood filled with real moments, laughter, creativity and love.

You don't need more time. You just need small swaps. Little by little, day by day, those small swaps become big changes that shape your child's future.

Thank you for saying YES to your child's real childhood.

You've got this, and you're not alone. ♥

With warmth & gratitude,

Prerna Sultania ♥

You are building more than memories.
You are building a childhood.

ALWAYS REMEMBER ♥

- ♥ Your presence is more powerful than any app.
- ♥ Boredom is not the enemy. It's where creativity begins.
- ♥ Real-life moments are the best teachers.
- ♥ Connection today builds confidence for life.
- ♥ You are your child's first role model.

THE IMPACT YOU'RE CREATING

STRONGER FAMILY BONDS

More talks, more laughs, more "us" time.

HAPPIER, HEALTHIER KIDS

Better moods, better focus, better habits.

MORE CREATIVITY & IMAGINATION

Their minds get the space to explore and grow.

CONFIDENCE & RESILIENCE

Real experiences build real strength.

MEMORIES THAT LAST A LIFETIME

The moments you create today will stay forever.

MY PROMISE TO YOU ♥

I will keep creating simple, practical and heart-filled resources to help you raise happy, healthy and confident kids in today's digital world.

Together, we can build a generation that chooses real over reel. ♥

KEEP THE JOURNEY GOING ♥

CAPTURE

Take photos of your real moments.

REFLECT

Use the trackers and reflection pages.

SHARE

Share your journey and inspire others.

REPEAT

Small swaps today, big changes tomorrow.

A Note for Your Child ♥

One day, you'll look back and remember the picnics, the games, the stories, the art, the adventures, the hugs, the fun and the time we spent together.

That's what truly matters. ♥

You're creating something beautiful.
Be proud of yourself.

Small swaps. Real moments. Big changes. Let's build a REAL childhood together. ♥

IT DOESN'T START WITH SCREENS.

A positive start today shapes choices for a lifetime.

Long before children ask for phones, tablets and YouTube, they build daily habits around food, routines and family connection.

Start the journey with

EAT YOUR GREEN GUIDE

A practical guide to help you:

Build a positive relationship with healthy foods.

Reduce mealtime stress, pressure and food battles.

Encourage curiosity and confidence to try new foods.

Create lasting eating habits that support health and well-being.

*Real life.
Real families.
Practical solutions that work.*

Healthy habits often begin around the family table.

When children enjoy healthy food, they carry that confidence with them everywhere—home, school, parties and beyond.

Turn the page to explore another challenge modern families face—junk food everywhere.

THE WORLD DOESN'T MAKE HEALTHY CHOICES EASY.

Help your child stay confident and make healthier choices—every day.

Even children who eat well at home face
🎁 birthday parties, 📢 advertisements, 🛒 school snacks, 🛒 supermarket temptations and constant junk food marketing.

THIS IS WHERE
RAISING KIDS IN A JUNK FOOD WORLD

makes a difference.

This book helps you:

HANDLE CRAVINGS WITH CONFIDENCE

Practical ways to manage cravings without guilt or constant saying no.

NAVIGATE PARTIES & CELEBRATIONS

Enjoy special occasions without derailing healthy habits or feeling stressed.

UNDERSTAND MARKETING INFLUENCE

Help your child become more aware, critical and less influenced by ads.

MANAGE EVERYDAY TEMPTATIONS

Simple strategies for schools, outings, restaurants and supermarket choices.

*It's not about completely avoiding junk food.
It's about building balance, awareness and strong decision-making skills.*

CONFIDENCE MATTERS WHEN HEALTHY CHOICES BECOME HARDER.

Let's prepare our children for the real world—together.

CONTINUE YOUR HEALTHY CHILDHOOD Journey ♥

Supporting healthier habits, stronger connections and happier childhoods—one step at a time.

1 EAT YOUR GREEN GUIDE

Transform mealtime battles into positive food experiences and help your child build a lifelong relationship with healthy eating.

2 RAISING KIDS IN A JUNK FOOD WORLD

Navigate ultra-processed foods, marketing influences and everyday temptations with practical strategies that support healthier choices.
